

WHY BELONG TO NTMA?

*"There is so much ROI that we have gotten from our membership. It is well worth the money spent and then some."
Andy Reinwald, Ripley Machine and Tool Inc.*

make connections

- Build relationships in the tooling and machining community
- Network with peers to discuss business strategies

promote advocacy

- Increase awareness of the trade to attract future workforce
- Champion small business and manufacturing in Washington D.C. with our lobbying group, The Franklin Partnership

advance workforce

- Take advantage of educational resources for all positions within the organization - industry specific online training through NTMA U, apprenticeship, management, and emerging leaders

